RECRUITMENT & SELECTION

Running good customer/client service is highly dependent on finding the right people who believe in the company's vision and values. This stems in how the recruitment and training are done, we do not compromise this process, and all candidates have to go through a carefully designed process that includes:

Criminal Checks

Polygraph Checks

Medical Examination

Reference Checks

Credit Checks

Basic Security Test

Fitness Checks

Qualification Checks

TRAINING

Training is the next phase which is as critical as recruitment, we look at the following courses to further upgrade our staff:

- Internal Refresher Training
- CCTV Training
- Fire Fighting Training
- First Aid Training
- OHS Training
- Firearm Training – Armed Guards
- Industry Related Training i.e. Residential, Retail, Construction Sites etc.

SITE SUPERVISION & MONITORING

Effective security services depend on adequate supervision and performance reviews for security personnel. Your contract with MNT Security would guarantee the following:

- Random checks by MNT Security supervisors of the premises to ensure that our guards there are performing as expected.
- A surprise drop-in inspection by our supervisory staff can happen at any time and during the course of any event. During a check like this, all guards will be observed and evaluated.
- Availability and willingness of MNT Security management to take comments and complaints on our service.
- If any of our guards behave in an unsatisfactory manner, we want to hear about it immediately. Supervisors are available 24 hours a day, seven days a week.
